

NOCCCD Extensive Laboratory Course List - Effective Spring 2024

CYPRESS COLLEGE - pages 1 and 2
FULLERTON COLLEGE - pages 2 and 3
Extensive Lab Designation Based on Mode of Instruction
Laboratory courses schedule as in-person/on-campus will receive the EL Designation and be compensated at 1 to 1 or 100% of a lecture hour.
Laboratory courses schedule as Synchronous or Asynchronous will not receive the EL Designation and be compensated at .75 to 1 or 75% of a lecture hour.
Synchronous or Asynchronous modes of instruction do not meet the following EL designation requirements.
- EL courses require interactive involvement of the instructor. The instructor is required, by the nature of lab activities, to engage in extensive interaction with students in a structured manner.
- Supervision of equipment maintenance, laboratory setup, acquisition of lab materials and supplies, field trip logistics, or preparation to ensure a safe environment conducive to learning.
- Instructor is actively engaged in lab when students are performing lab activities.
- Instructor is responsible for active facilitation of laboratory learning.
