

March 31, 2023

Announcement of Candidates and Statements

Dear Colleagues,

Please read below for announcements of candidates for UF President, Vice President, and Representative Council seats for the 2023-2025 term, including candidate statements as submitted. Candidate statements were limited to 30 words or less. Candidates are listed according to the 2022-2023 CTA Alphabet. Pursuant to our UF Bylaws, all positions will have a write-in selection on the ballot. Voting will be through Simply Voting and will take place from April 6-13. Please refer to the attached Election Timeline and CTA Elections Procedures and Requirements for further details.

2022-2023
CTA Alphabetical Order
F N U V E M D P R Z C H S Y O L J A K W X I G B T Q

President:

Christie Diep: “Faculty are more unified than ever, and we must continue building on the gains we’ve made for improved salary, benefits, and working conditions. I’d appreciate your vote for UF president.”

Vice President:

Katie King

Fullerton College Business/CIS/PE:

No Candidate

Fullerton College Counseling:

Elsa Perez: “As your representative, I want to ensure Counseling is receiving all new and developing UF information in a timely manner, so Counselor feedback is part of the decision-making process.”

JP Gonzalez

Fullerton College Fine Arts:

Markus Burger: “Dedicated to transparency, communication, and creative problem-solving. Re-elect me as your United Faculty rep council member for continued success and collaboration.”

Fullerton College Humanities/Library 1, 2023-2025:

Lugene Rosen: “I am running for rep to keep the librarians’ voices heard. Great strides were made for us in the latest MOU, and I would love to keep the momentum going.”

Fullerton College Humanities/Library 2, 2023-2024:
No Candidate

Fullerton College Math/Computer Science:
No Candidate

Fullerton College Social Sciences:
Archie Delshad: "Dear Colleagues, I believe in meticulous recordkeeping, transparency, accountability, no concessions to our wealthy District, and securing the best possible working conditions for faculty. Vote Delshad for a stronger Union!"

Cypress College Health Science/Kinesiology:
No Candidate

Cypress College Language Arts/Library:
Josh House: "I am excited for the opportunity to do good work for good people. Thank you for your consideration."

Cypress College Social Sciences:
No Candidate

Cypress College Counseling and Fine Arts:
Robert Grantham: "I have been a very active UF Representative Council member for the past four years, and I will continue advocating for faculty as we navigate our new hybrid modality."

Watch the email you have previously used for elections and surveys for your ballot on April 6. Reach out to me at jwalkeruf@gmail.com with any questions or concerns.

In Unity-

Jane Walker, RN, MSN
Elections Committee Chair
United Faculty
Professor of Nursing
Cypress College